

What Can I Do & Don't?

Income Claims (policy 25. Income claims)

Truvy® Associates call not make income projections, income claims, income testimonials, disclose their Truvy income (included but not limited to, showing of checks, copies of checks, banks statements or tax records), or guarantee which can be misleading or unsubstantiated while presenting or discussing the Truvy opportunity or Compensation Plan to a perspective/potential Associate. To avoid any chance of deception, Truvy Associates should be honest that success requires substantial hard work and long-term commitment.

Do's

- “The reality of working an Associate business is that you have to work hard, elevate your skills, and put in the time and energy into your business to see any results.”
- “I love my side hustle! Health products and the possibility of earning a commission! What else could you want? “health goals ✅ naturally sourced ingredients ✅ AND the possibility of earning side-hustle money ✅ “

Don'ts

- “The business works itself”
- “The company does all the work for you”
- “Full time income”
- “Quit your 9 to 5 job”
- “I made $1,000 with Truvy”
- Pictures of lavish trips
- Pictures of exotics cars.
- Pictures of cash or checks
- “A rank of 3 stars earns average of $800 per week”

Follow us on Facebook

Truvy.com

